Dear Career Women — HAPPY HOLIDAYS

I'm writing this first little newsletter to catch up with some of you I haven't seen ⁱⁿ awhile, and to let you know or remind you of what's planned for the next gathering.

PLEASE COME, and take a few minutes to think about the two questions on the agenda below before you come that nite:

DATE: Sunday, January 13, 1985 5:30 PM → on

PLACE: Kate Sproul's house, 2425 5th Avenue, Sac.
(near Sierra School, Curtis Park area — directions:

From Business I-80 take 15th St. exit if coming from west, or 26th St. exit if coming from east; then go alongside freeway on X or W to get over to 24th St.; go south on 24th St. to left on 5th Ave. — it's a few houses down on the left)

AGENDA: 1) eat delicious potluck treats (the dinners have been getting better & better --- bring good food and drinks) ^{xx} 😊

2) pick a name or develop a contest to pick a name or decide that Sacto Career Women's Network (SCWN) is really it ????

3) pick a date between April 2 and May 19 to have our first outside social event together — an evening at the Cabaret at Sac. Theater Co's upcoming, outrageously funny play, "Sister Mary Ignatius Explains It All For You" — ??
PLEASE check your calendars for good dates beforehand!!

4) introductions & socializing — bring someone NEW
